

what the Sinclair Broadcasting group is doing this week should be illegal - actually, it may be illegal for all I know. Forced preempting of standard programming to air a one-sided political program this close to an election is reprehensible. The Sinclair should not be allowed to get away with something like this.

where's the balance? why are they not being forced to show programming presenting an opposing view? This is nothing more than an example of corporate control, and is indeed a corporate buyout of voters.

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.
